Stan and Mabel

and the Race for Space

On stage today

Nefeli Chadouli conductor

Polly Ives presenter

London Philharmonic Orchestra

Welcome to today's FUNharmonics performance of Stan and Mabel and the Race for Space by the London Philharmonic Orchestra! In today's concert we meet Stan and Mabel, a music-loving dog and cat duo who are troubled by the treatment of all the animals in their city. After being captured and thrown into the School for Wild and Dangerous Animals and then forced into jobs, Stan, Mabel and their animal friends embark on an epic escape! Will they find a safe place to call their home? Based on the lively story by Jason Chapman, the music includes lots of moments for audience participation, so keep an eye on presenter Polly who will tell you exactly what to do! Make sure to head over to our SINGharmonics workshop to get a head-start learning the songs before the concert, as well as exploring some of the orchestral instruments up close. Our concert also includes a wonderful array of orchestral music, taking us from the icy homeland of the polar bear to the silly-bonkers music of the Comedians' Galop, so settle in, prepare your best singing voices and get ready for the action!

Welcome to the Southbank Centre

We're the UK's largest centre for the arts and one of the nation's top five visitor attractions, showcasing the world's most exciting artists at our venues in the heart of London. As a charity, we bring millions of people together by opening up the unique art spaces that we care for.

The Southbank Centre is made up of the Royal Festival Hall, Queen Elizabeth Hall, Purcell Room, Hayward Gallery, National Poetry Library and Arts Council Collection. We're one of London's favourite meeting spots, with lots of free events and places to relax, eat and shop next to the Thames.

We hope you enjoy your visit. If you need any information or help, please ask a member of staff. You can also write to us at Southbank Centre, Belvedere Road, London SE1 8XX, or email hello@southbankcentre.co.uk

Subscribers to our email updates are the first to hear about new events, offers and competitions. Just head to our website to sign up.
