WELCOME TO THE SOUTHBANK CENTRE

We're the UK's largest centre for the arts and one of the nation's top five visitor attractions, showcasing the world's most exciting artists at our venues in the heart of London. As a charity, we bring millions of people together by opening up the unique art spaces that we care for.

The Southbank Centre is made up of the Royal Festival Hall, Queen Elizabeth Hall, Purcell Room, Hayward Gallery, National Poetry Library and Arts Council Collection. We're one of London's favourite meeting spots, with lots of free events and places to relax, eat and shop next to the Thames.

We hope you enjoy your visit. If you need any information or help, please ask a member of staff. You can also write to us at Southbank Centre, Belvedere Road, London SE1 8XX, or email hello@southbankcentre.co.uk

Subscribers to our email updates are the first to hear about new events, offers and competitions. Just head to our website to sign up.

Production support from Richard Mallett Arts Management.

FUNharmonics foyer activities are generously supported by Stentor Music Co. Ltd, Jupiter, and Pilgrim Harps.

LONDON PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

Sergei Prokofiev's Peter and the Wolf tells the tale of a boy, a bird, a duck, a cat ... and a wolf! Ignoring his grandpa's warnings, Peter heads out to the meadow, because who's afraid of a wolf? A classic for a reason, Peter and the Wolf is the perfect example of brilliant music that shines a light on different instruments of the orchestra through compelling storytelling. Performed alongside music from Samuel Coleridge-Taylor's dramatic Othello Suite, and with a fun song to sing all about a hungry wolf, this is going to be an unforgettable concert experience for all the family. So settle in, get ready to use your singing voices, and join the LPO for today's lively musical adventure!
